

Terms and Conditions BPCPA (Business Practices and Consumer Protection Association)

1. Pending disposition, the deceased will be sheltered at Simply Cremations. Unit 8 2064 Henry Avenue West Sidney BC.

2. Embalming is NOT a legal requirement but may be necessary in some cases. (eg: Air Transportation, long term storage of human remains) Embalming is recommended where viewing or visitation Services have been requested. Embalming can NOT take place without the written permission of the executor.

3. I understand that I have a choice to identify, or not identify the body of the decedent. If I choose not to identify the body of the decedent, the Funeral Home will rely solely upon the identification made by the institution or organization releasing the decedent. I understand the forgoing and do hereby release and forever discharge the funeral home, it's employees, agents and representatives of and from any claims and liabilities which may arise from errors in the identification of the decedent, regardless of the manner in which any such error may arise or occur.

4. The purchaser represents that he/she/they share legally authorized of charge to control the disposition of the deceased, as determined by the Cremation Interment and Funeral Services Act Section 5 (1) and further acknowledge that the Funeral Home, it's employees, agents and representatives are acting in reliance upon this representation. If there is more than one Legal Next of Kin (ie: Parents) Both individuals must sign all documents.

5. The deceased will be weighed at the both the hospital (if applicable) and the crematorium facility. If the weight of the deceased and casket combined is 300lbs or over, a services fee of $200 will apply for cremation of an oversized individual. (A fee of $150. Will apply for handling of oversize remains, this applies to individuals exceeding 250 lbs. *additional staff required for casketing and operation of equipment)

6. The purchaser acknowledges that the weight limit for a cardboard cremation container is 150 to 175 lbs; however, depending on an individual's weight distribution, a support tray may be required in certain cases where an individual is near the weight limit, OR if the deceased's remains were in the freezer facility at the hospital, or there are fluids present. This is a preventative measure against having the cremation container collapse. If any of the aforementioned apply, a plastic lined support tray will be used in conjunction with the carton casket. I accept and agree to this fact. Please note every effort will be made to utilize the cardboard casket whenever possible.

7. The purchaser acknowledges that he / she was offered a copy of the general price list prior to selecting the services and merchandise which are the subject of this agreement.

8. If this agreement is signed by the purchaser at any place other than the funeral providers place of business and the agreement has not been substantially performed, the purchaser has 24 hours in which to cancel the agreement without penalty but subject to payment for services provided to the time of cancellation

9. After the period of 90 days, cremated remains still in the care of Simply Cremations will be subject to a storage fee of $100 per month or portion of 1 month.

10. A funeral provider in the province of British Columbia must pay to the Business Practices and Consumer Protection Authority (BPCPA) as part of the fees payable for the funeral providers licence to operate, a $40. administration fee for each death registered in the province of British Columbia under the Vital Statistics Act by a Funeral Director employed by or under contract to the funeral provider.

11. I understand that cremated remains and all pertinent documentation (including the original death certificate), will be made available up to 10 business days from the date of the initial contact with the funeral provider. Cremated remains and associated documents required earlier than the aforementioned time frame will be subject to a Rush Cremation fee of $385. A Rush Cremation is subject to the crematory's availability and scheduling accommodations.

*Death certificates can be issued in advance of cremation upon payment in full of the funeral services contract"

All credit card transactions are subject to a 2.4% processing fee (added to the balance of the contract after taxes)

12. Where there is NO morgue/refrigeration available at the place of death, a "Bedside Transfer" fee of $250. (Plus tax) will apply. *Services of a licensed funeral director On Call 24/7, coordination of transfer personnel and their transfer equipment, 24/7 corresponding with care staff, and family members to organize bringing the deceased into our care. Contacting physician/care home staff, family to obtain the physicians Medical Certificate of death.

13. I understand that the Funeral Services Contract and Terms and Conditions must be signed by the Executor / Legal Next of Kin PRIOR to any services being provided. This can be accomplished via email, text or in person.

I have read and understand the Terms and Conditions

Name_____

Signature_____